

Thiago Cubias' Be Present S.C. Essay:

One reason why coming to school every day is important to me is to learn in school. We can learn about a lot of subjects and school is fun for me. Learning new things causes you to understand even more when you are in class.

One thing I miss more when I cannot come to school. I miss my friends because I play with my friends and my teacher and miss learning new things.

My favorite things are math. I like math because you can do alot of stuff and I'm really good at math. My other favorite thing to do is ELA. I like to write and social studies because it is about history and I like history.

School is not the same without me because I miss school and you can learn new things at school. It feels different when I'm not in school I miss my friends and my teacher. It is fun being at school.
